These terms may be superseded by the terms in an executed corporate agreement or sales contract between the Licensor and Licensee if explicitly stated as superseding this Agreement. These terms, unless expressly stated otherwise, are incorporated as complementary to, but secondary to the extent of any inconsistency, a written software licence agreement.

The first year ALF is compulsory. Thereafter, the ALF program can be optionally purchased. - c. software maintenance only for the duration the version in use by the Licensee is the Current Version.

Licensor reserves the right to charge for new Software modules and for those modules to also require maintenance and the payment of a respective ALF.

A Licence renewal notification will be sent to Licensee by Licensor two (2) months in advance of the expiry and then one month prior to the expiry of the current licence program period.

Licensee shall also ensure that Licensor's personnel are provided with all information, facilities, assistance and accessories reasonably required by Licensor to enable Licensor to comply with its obligations under this Agreement.

If reasonably requested by Licensor, Licensee shall provide a suitably qualified or informed representative to provide such advice or assistance to those personnel as may be necessary in order to enable Licensor to access the Software and any relevant computer equipment for the purposes of timely support.

The Licensee will not access, use, or (directly or indirectly) allow use, of the Software in, from, or for the benefit of any party in a Prohibited Jurisdiction and the Licensor reserves the right to terminate this Agreement and the Licensee agrees to forfeit any payments made to the Licensor if the Licensee breaches this provision.

Consequences of Termination

If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this clause, Licensor may, in addition to terminating the Agreement:

- a. repossess any copies of the Software and security devices in the possession, custody or control of Licensee;
- b. retain any moneys paid; and
- c. be regarded as discharged from any further obligations under the Agreement.

Licensee may terminate this Licence at any time by destroying the Software and Documentation together with all copies. If for any reason Licensee's right to use the Software terminates, Licensee must remove and destroy all copies of the Software and Documentation and return any hardware security device associated with the Licence to Licensor. Licensee shall not be entitled to a refund or part thereof should Licensee exercise its rights under this clause.

Licensor shall be legally entitled to suspend or terminate this Agreement if payment is not made in full by Licensee for the software or for any unpaid Licensor invoice not in dispute which remains outstanding longer than 90 days.

Licensor shall be entitled to disable use of the Licence by the Licensee if Licensee engages in any misuse of the software including, but not limited to, disabling copy protections or making the Software licence available for download by third parties in breach of this Agreement.

M.ALF Licences will terminate automatically if ALF is not paid when due, along with the right to use the Software.

General Provisions

The above terms and conditions supersede any prior arrangement, oral or written, between Licensee and Licensor relating to the Licence and use of the Software and constitutes the entire agreement between Licensor and Licensee, with the exception of the circumstances set out in the Corporate Agreement, Sales Contract and Software Licence Agreement term above.

Licensor may modify the terms of the Agreement from time to time and will notify the Licensee by email or by posting a notice on www.micromine.com. For Licensees with a Subscription Licence, continued use of the Software following any such modification constitutes acceptance of the modified terms. If the Licensee doesn't agree to the modified terms, it may cancel the Subscription Licence and the Licensor will provide a pro rata refund for the remaining licence term. For all other Licence holders, the modified terms will have effect from the time the next major version release is installed and the Licensee clicks their acceptance. If the Licensee doesn't agree to the modified terms, it may continue using its current major version release on the existing terms.

This Agreement shall be construed, interpreted and governed by the laws of the state of Western Australia.

If any provision of the Agreement is held invalid, unenforceable or illegal for any reason, the Agreement shall remain otherwise in full force apart from such provision which shall be deemed deleted.

The covenants, conditions and provisions of the Agreement which are capable of having effect after the expiration of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect following the expiration of the Agreement.

A failure or delay by a party to exercise any right or remedy provided under this Agreement or by law shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict any further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

Any express statement of a right of Licensor under this Agreement is without prejudice to any other right of Licensor expressly stated in this Agreement or existing at law.

By clicking "accept" and proceeding with installation of the Software you are representing you are a duly authorised member of the Licensee organisation or company's personnel and have the authority to bind that organisation or company to this Agreement.
